

THE OHIO VOLUNTEER

NEWSLETTER OF THE SOUTHEASTERN OHIO CIVIL WAR ROUNDTABLE

November, 2013

The November meeting will be held on Saturday, November 23 at 9:00 a.m..

We meet at the Ninth Street Methodist Church in Cambridge.

Jerry Thompson and Joe Ferrel will team up this meeting to tell us about

WALT WHITMAN

The Host for this meeting, supplying the treats to go along with the coffee is Herb Parkinson

Our attendance for last month's meeting was disappointingly low considering the quality of the speaker who gave a program on the National Civil War Museum. Wayne Motts gave an exceptional program. He explained that every article in the Museum is not just an artifact but has a story behind it. For example, they not only have A McCullen saddle on display but they have McCullen's own saddle. They have a Confederate flag that was flown over Fort Sumpter. They have Robert E. Lee's bible. Many of the artifacts have on them the blood stains of their previous owners. Each article has a story behind it. A great program.

DUES ARE NOW DUE.

QUESTION OF THE MONTH

What bloody Virginia battle fought on June 3, 1864, was named for a nearby tavern which did not serve hot meals?
